What does the Tea support?

The Ladies' Day Tea is held each year in support of Immaculate Conception Ukrainian Catholic Schools. Proceeds not only help off-set costs, but are an important part of enhancing the IC experience for our growing student body. Proceeds from past Teas have supported:

- Scholarships for Ukrainian refugee children
- IC's award-winning FIRSTLego Robotics Teams
- Refurbishing the playground
- Purchasing new kitchen equipment for our growing hot lunch program
- Sponsoring important software upgrades, including: JupiterEd online gradebook, and Freckle for students
- New books for the IC student library

The Ladies' Day TEAm

The Ladies' Day Tea is Immaculate Conception Schools' largest annual fundraiser. It takes a committed group of people months of planning and untold hours of hard work to bring it all together. We give special thanks to the following people for their dedication and vision.

Guest Vendors

We invite you to visit our Guest Vendors!

Because we had so many vendors interested in our Ladies' Day Tea, all exhibitors are located in the Dovbush Room across the hall. Please visit their tables to see their amazing offerings. They offer a variety of unique goods — and an opportunity for everyone to take a little something special home! They proudly support Immaculate Conception Schools and are donating a percentage of today's profits to our school. We thank them for their time and generosity!

Olha Muravka, Owner of Svoia

Svoia, meaning "mine" in Ukrainian, is more than just a company; it's a celebration of Ukrainian culture and identity. Our founder, Olha, a passionate young woman, curates a collection of exquisite brooch pins that embody the spirit of Ukraine. These pieces are more than just accessories: they are a way to connect with your roots, express your pride, and show your support for Ukraine.

Viktoria's Handmade, Viktoria Grygorenko

Viktoria's work combines beads and seed beads into statement jewelry. From necklace pieces to hair accessories, she creates fantastical floral accessories that adorn and delight women and girls of all ages. <http://viktoriasflower.storenvy.com/>

Sophia Baltrinic, Artist

Sophia is a Michigan-based artist and a high school senior at Detroit-area Regina Caeli Academy. Her growth in faith inspired her to combine her love of drawing characters from books, movies, and video games with her art. An outgrowth of this has been her participation in several local art fairs, which kick started her small business. Through her mini saint designs, she hopes to excite today's youth by presenting the Catholic heritage in new and appealing ways.
